Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What is that eerie shrieking coming from Spider Hollow night after night? Does it have anything to do with that crazy old hermit and his band of cats living there? Rumors about the old man run rampant. No one has befriended him in all of these years. Everyone fears him. And then there is the question of how could he still be living. He was over seventy years of age when he entered Spider Hollow and that has been over seventy-five years ago. That would make him over one hundred forty years old. That couldn't be. And then a twelve-year-old boy named Ben Parsons stumbles onto Moss Lathrop's (the old hermit) shack one day when he is exploring. Ben befriends him and makes secret treks to Spider Hollow to talk with him. Ben shivers sitting in the old clapboard shack deeply in the bowels of Spider Hollow. His old friend is preparing nature man's stew for him. It is a terrible, black and bitter concoction. Cats loom everywhere in the dark room. They lie on shelves, lurk from dark corners, cower, and some are ready to pounce. Especially, Moss's favorite cat, Evil. Ben likes to visit his old friend because he willingly listens to his troubles. Ben feels as if he doesn't have any friends. And his other concern is that his father has been out of work for months. After several trips to the hollow the old man trusts Ben and feels that he is his one and only friend after seventy-five years. And because of this trust he makes a startling pronouncement. Moss Lathrop (the old hermit) is actually the Imperial...
