Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education: The Institutional Budget The larger duties of an academic institution. - Coordinate with these purposes appears the underlying theory of the studies of service made by the institute. The authorities of the institute believe that teaching is a great art, and that its main purpose is to transfer the vital thought - the flame of learning - from the mind of the teacher to the mind of the scholar; that every change or expenditure in a purely teaching institution should be made Avith one thought in mind, namely, Does this assist or hinder the transference of this vital thought? Together with this comes the realization of the duty of trustees of a great foundation not to waste a dollar of the funds intrusted to their care, and the duty of trustees of student life not to waste an hour of the student s time. The three general divisions of this paper. - With this brief preliminary statement of the reason underlying all the educational researches of the institute,...
