Excerpt: . . . sanctioned the transportation of our brethren en masse without judgment, now find force where they sought justice, is a lesson not more hard than merited. It is the penalty of retribution which is inflicted on them, and it is not for us to-complain. But what it concerns us to understand now is, whether you are in the mood for a change of tyrants For does this crime belong to that Assembly of which he was the inspirer and accomplice Was it not he who, by his ministers, proposed and passed that odious law of May, against which he now rises up, because the candidature of Joinville has made him afraid Is not he, still more than the Assembly, charged with the responsibility of having drowned the Italian Republic in the blood of the Romans, mingled with that of the French soldiers Among so many shameful and liberticide measures, let one be mentioned, a single one, which did not exhibit Louis Bonaparte acting in concert with the Assembly. As soon as his ambition was threatened by the As semhly, he became the enemy of that body. But forget not that he has been its accomplice, so long as it acted to oppress you. He now comes forward to tell you that the people is sovereign, and at the same time he dares to demand ten years of power--that is, the abdication of that sovereignty for ten years. He sets himself up as the man of...
