Jon Kate Plus Eight: Reality TV the Selling of the Gosselins: Reality TV the Selling of the Gosselins

By Polly Kahl

Kahl Counseling Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 350 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Polly Kahl started blogging about the Gosselins after they moved to her small town of Wernersville, Pennsylvania. In the next two years she experienced a whirlwind of life lessons about reality TV and the business of entertainment as the Gosselin family splintered and eventually broke apart. Jon and Kate Plus Eight: Reality TV and the Selling of the Gosselins is full of insightful interviews, discussions and practical solutions from researcher Jennifer L Pozner, child advocate Paul Petersen, actor Eric Roberts, body language expert Dr. Lillian Glass, Becki Dilley, parent of the Dilley sextuplets, and other experts on the entertainment industry and reality TV. The author, a professional counselor, adds her unique voice to the discussion with commentaries on the psychological aspects of the Gosselin phenomenon in this examination of reality TV and its impact on a fractured family TLC once called Jon and Kate Plus Eight. ENDORSEMENTS Polly Kahl's book takes the reader on a shocking journey behind the fake smiley faces of a popular reality television show. Having participated in reality television myself, I know the pressure camera crews are under to create interesting...
