In view of the interest taken by a large number of (be members of the community in the public school affairs, we agreed that the committee should make so complete a study of the school system as to make possible a community program of education. This study and program was undertaken from one fundamental point of view, namely, the welfare of the children of this city. Both the study and the program, we agreed, ought to be made from a thoroughly impersonal standpoint so far as the administrators of the school system were concerned; but from a very human standpoint so far as the children were concerned. We had therefore in mind, what is best for the young people of Akron at the present time, and what the line of growth of the educational system should be, in order that each succeeding group of children be properly educated to fit into its life in this city. This conception proved to be so large an undertaking that we prevailed upon the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce to permit us to employ expert trained assistants, for we felt that no program could be developed that was not based upon a complete study of the present organization, and also upon a study of other cities, and it was evident that the members of the Committee could not devote the amount of time...
