Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The End of a Coil The door stands open of a handsome house in Walnut Street, the Walnut Street which belongs to the city of William Penn; and on the threshold stands a lady, with her hand up to her brows, shielding her eyes from the light She is watching to see what will come out of a carriage just driving up to the curb stone. The carriage stops; there descends first the figure of a handsome, very comfortable looking gentleman. Mrs. Eberstein s eyes pass over him very cursorily; she has seen him before; and there is hardly a curl on his handsome head which his wife does not know by heart What comes next? Ah, that is she! the figure of the expected one; and a little girl of some eleven years is helped carefully out by, Mr. Eberstein, and comes up the steps to the waiting and watching lady.
